Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 16. to Saturday February 20. 1741.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of February, 1741.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

This Day his Grace Peregrine Duke of Ancaſter, Lord Great Chamberlain, was, by His Majeſty's Command, ſworn of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable William Pulteney, Eſq; was, by His Majeſty's Command, ſworn of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Petersbourg, Jan. 23. Counteſs Oſterman, Munich, Goloffkin, and Madame Mengden, have all accepted the Czarina's Permiſſion of following their Husbands into Baniſhment. Count Oſterman ſet forward the 19th; his two Sons and Daughter were allowed to go and take Leave of him at the Jemzskoi, about five Werſts off. Every one of the Exiles, as well as their Wives, have had Leave to take with them four Suits of Cloaths, and two Dozen of Shirts, &c. in Proportion; and they will each of them be allowed a Rouble per Day, and the tenth Part of one for every Servant, of which they have had Leave to take as many as they pleaſed. They are to be defrayed on the Road, and the Felt Marſhal having expreſs'd a Deſire of taking his Domeſtick Chaplain with him, if he could have born the Expence of his Salary and Journey, her Majeſty immediately ordered him to be ſent at her's, and he accordingly followed the next Evening. It is aſſured that Expreſſes have been diſpatched to bring back the late Regent and all his Family, his Brothers Carl and Guſtave, and his Brother in Law General Biſmarc and his Wife; and it is ſaid that upon their Arrival at Moſcow, they will all be diſmiſſed out of this Service, and be allowed to retire out of the Country. On the 21ſt, News came here of the Arrival of the Duke of Holſtein on the 11th at Dantzick, and that he was to proceed on his Journey hither the next Day; ſo that he is ſuppoſed to be already at Riga. Immediately after the Arrival of the Poſt, M. Lillielfelt went to acquaint Prince Lewis, that he might prepare for his Journey, and returned again the ſame Evening to let him know, that every thing would be ready for his ſetting out the next Afternoon, which he did laſt Night about Seven o'Clock, accompanied with the Chambellan M. Lillielfelt, and eſcorted by a Lieutenant and 18 Soldiers. The Prince made the Chambellan Puskin, who had ſerved him from his firſt coming, to the Change, a Preſent of a very handſome Diamond Ring. Her Majeſty was Yeſterday to ſee the late Grand Marſhal Count Lowenwolde's Houſe, as ſhe had been ſome Weeks ago to ſee that of the Felt Marſhal Munich. She has given that in which ſhe lived herſelf to the Chambellan Voranzoff, who is to be married to Mademoiſelle Shovrunski, a Relation of hers, and one of her Maids of Honour. The Felt Marſhal Lacy is ſo well recovered, that he was out this Morning to make his Court to her Majeſty. Abraham Petrovitz Araboff, a Negro, who was made a Preſent of to Peter the Firſt, by a Captain of an Engliſh Ship, when his Majeſty commanded the combined Fleet in the Sound, and whom he left at Paris in the Year 1717, to apply himſelf to Engineering and Mathematicks, and afterwards made, firſt, a Lieutenant in his Guards, and then a Captain of Bombardiers, being ſome Weeks ago returned by the Grand Dutcheſs's Favour from the Baniſhment he was ſent into in Peter the Second's Time, has been made by her preſent Majeſty a Major General, Commandant at Revel, and receiv'd a Preſent of 600 Boors about Pleskow.

From the Head Quarters of Marſhal Khevenhuller's Army at Braunau in Bavaria, Feb. 8. We have found a great Quantity of Artillery, Proviſions and Ammunition in this Town, that of Burghauſen, and the other Places we have taken. By Expreſſes arrived this Day from General Bernklau and Colonel Mentzel, we are informed that Landſhout has likewiſe ſurrendred.

From the Head Quarters of the Queen of Hungary's Troops at Budweis, Feb. 10. The 4th Inſtant we had an Account of the Saxon Troops having marched out of Quarters, and being to join at Przebiſlau, two Leagues from Polna. The Town of Iglau has been put by the Auſtrians in a State of Defence, and the four Regiments which are in Garriſon there continue their new Levies with Succeſs. The abovementioned Saxon Troops have purſued their March to Great Meſeritz; ſo that Teutſchbrod and its Neighbourhood are once more clear of the Enemy's Troops. The Prince of Lobkowitz is come to Day from Neuhaus to Iglau.

Vienna, Feb. 10, N. S. We have no regular Journal from either of the Armies, ſince the taking of Lintz; that in Bavaria is divided, and ſpreads itſelf all over the Country, from whence they draw very conſiderable Contributions, tions, and ſuch Quantities of all Sorts of Proviſions, that Count Khevenhuller has offer'd to ſupply the Army in Bohemia. As that General is ſaid to have now above 36000 Men, a Body of 15000 will be, or is actually, detached for Bohemia or Moravia.

We have here the following Particulars relating to the Surrender and Capitulation of Paſſau.

The News of the taking of Lintz, the Capital of Upper Auſtria, having been received at Paſſau, the Garriſon of the Citadel there ſurrendered on the 25th paſt, without making the leaſt Reſiſtance, and were allowed by their Capitulation, to march out with all military Honours, with their Baggage, and with twelve Charges for each Soldier. They were to be eſcorted toward Straubing, and it was agreed that the Artillery, with all the Ammunition, Provender and Forage belonging to his Electoral Highneſs of Bavaria ſhould be faithfully declared, but as it was pretended that Part of the Artillery belonged to the Chapter of Paſſau, and Part to the City, and that his Eminence the Cardinal Biſhop had reſerved it to himſelf, that Point was left to the Deciſion of Marſhal Khevenhuller. The Garriſon was allowed to remain in the City of Paſſau and the Town called Newmark till the Day following, the 26th, and to take with them Bread for four Days from the Electoral Magazine. All the Soldiers actually found in the Citadel, were to be comprehended under the Name of the Garriſon, and the Sick to be permitted to ſtay, till they ſhould be in a Condition to remove themſelves to any Place in the Poſſeſſion of the French or Bavarians. By the Surrender of Paſſau, we became Maſters of the magnificent Bridge over the Danube which belonged to the French, and coſt them very great Sums.

St. James's, February 17.

This Day his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales waited on his Majeſty, and was received in the moſt gracious and affectionate Manner; on which Occaſion there was a very ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction; and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonſtrations of Joy.

Whitehall, February 20.
